

Q4 2023 promotional cashback terms and conditions

Introduction

1. This document sets out the terms and conditions (the 'cashback terms and conditions') for the promotional cashback award for new Barclaycard Select Cashback credit card customers who apply between 2 October 2023 and 13 December 2023, and the account is opened by 31 January 2024.

What promotional cashback will I receive?

2. New Barclaycard Select Cashback credit card customers can earn extra cashback on all 'Eligible Spend' in the first three statement months from the account being opened by Barclaycard. Customers can earn £50 cashback for spending £3,000 – £4,999 across the first three statement months. Customers who spend £5,000 or more across the first three statement months will receive £100 cashback.

By 'Eligible Spend', we mean any card purchases that are made by you or an additional cardholder within the first three statement months from opening an account with us (the 'Qualifying Period'). Unless we tell you otherwise, Eligible Spend excludes purchases that are subsequently returned or refunded, balance transfers, cash-like transactions, cash withdrawals, cheque purchases, insurance premiums, interest, default charges and other fees and charges.

How do we calculate your promotional cashback?

3. Your promotional cashback will be calculated according to the amount of Eligible Spend you make in the Qualifying Period.

How will you receive your promotional cashback?

4. We'll credit your account with the full value of your promotional cashback on your fifth statement month. This will appear on your statement as 'Promotional Cashback'. Your account must be open at the time when the payment is to be made.
5. The value of any standard monthly 1% cashback award will continue to be paid into your account in accordance with your cashback terms and conditions.

Cancelling promotional cashback

6. To benefit from your promotional cashback, you must comply with your Barclaycard Conditions (the 'Conditions') and meet the requirements as set out in these cashback terms and conditions. We reserve the right to cancel any promotional cashback due to you if:
 - (a) You breach your Conditions at any point during the Qualifying Period. A breach of your Conditions includes a failure to make your monthly minimum payment by the payment due date, exceeding your credit limit or having a cheque, direct debit or other item returned unpaid
 - (b) Your account is closed, either by you or us, during the Qualifying Period

Refunds

7. If you're given a refund for a purchase, this will be deducted from the Eligible Spend used to calculate the value of your promotional cashback.

General

8. Barclays doesn't provide tax advice and if you have any concerns you should seek independent tax or legal advice. You're responsible for the management of your own tax obligations and any further tax liabilities or applicable filings that arise as a result of a cashback payment to you are your responsibility.

Changes to these promotional cashback terms and conditions

9. We may change these promotional cashback terms and conditions or withdraw the promotional cashback offer by giving you notice.
